

Paper guidelines UU2009

1. General

Indicate if you intend to submit a full paper or a shorter workshop paper. A full paper ranges between 4000 and 8000 words, a workshop paper counts minimum 2000 and maximum 2500 words.

2. Text

All texts are submitted as a Word 97-2003 document (*.doc , not as *.docx).

Filename for long paper: lp_lastname_initial.doc (e.g. lp_deblock_g.doc)

Filename for workshop paper: wp_lastname_initial.doc (e.g. wp_githua_b.doc)

3. Layout

Use the provided word-template. Do not format the document. Use the Arial font as in the template. Use the headings provided in the template. Limit the text to two levels at the most (Sections and Sub sections) and do not number them.

4. Illustrations

Insert the pictures and maps directly in the word document at the relevant place, according to the text. Use only jpg-format for all images. Place the picture in line with the text (not square, tight, behind, nor in front of the text). Compress the picture resolution to a of maximum 200dpi.

In order to refer in your text to an illustration, place 'fig.' and the number of the illustration within rectangular brackets, as in [fig.1]. Each illustration is provided with a subscript of maximum 25 words, placed directly under it and preceded by [fig. 1].

It is the responsibility of the author to arrange the copyrights and the permission of the pictures.

5. Notes

For notes and references use 'insert footnote' as provided in the Word-template.

If possible, merge the bibliography into the footnotes.
